Spring at Casa Caritas

Our garden is looking so beautiful. Natanya captured some of the blooms that are brightening our world. What a cheerful sight.

On 24 September each year South Africans are encouraged to celebrate their diversity in a country that belongs to all its people.

Casa Caritas is representative of our country in that our employees and residents are from diverse cultures, beliefs and traditions. Our Home staff are encouraged to dress up each year and they never disappoint. Below from left to right are Sister Bongsi, Bonisile, Daisy, Rose, Nompumelelo, Dorcas, Lolly, Mirriam, Jeanette.

We still have tickets available. Please contact Chantell on 072 107 1989.

Casa Caritas 50th anniversary

The celebration will take place on Saturday 14 October 2023. Attendance by invitation only. Invitations have already gone out.

The World Cup Rugby semi-final will be shown on a big screen at the event.

A new season at Casa Caritas

It took many years, but I found my calling. From the day that I started here at Casa, I knew that it would be here that I would find myself and my life purpose.

I am not talented in sports or academics, but I believe I have a great talent to love, unconditionally and freely. It is here I get to express my love and it is here that the love I give is accepted the way I give it. Imperfect.

Many seasons have gone by here at Casa, the seeds were planted and have been blooming. I started here in the Spring, and I want us to bloom better than ever before.

Chantell Kriel, CEO

Oh, the treasures a winter brings to its spring.

How sweet it is to feel that something is both new and old.

The earth and sky love to rest and play and grow together;

theirs is a dialogue of unity.

Pushing through the dirt and cold, the Seedlings and I rise to greet the sun.

We remember that what is planted in love

Under a grateful sky belongs to one.

Thank you

Westside Primary School in Kempton Park collected much needed baby powder and toiletries for us. They came to visit and learn more about our Home.

We received a wheelchair donation from Elsa Venter and allocated the wheelchair to Philip Verceuil. Thank you, Elsa!

A Home cell group from Kaleido Kerk in Kempton Park put together pamper parcels with much thought and love for our staff. Thank you to Karen Carisa and her group! Below: Thembi, Albert, Frieda, Rose, Johanna and Salaminah. Far below: Busi, Mirriam, Dorcas, Jeanette, Dalsy, Lolly and Nompumalelo.

We are up to something – can you guess?

At Casa Caritas we believe in continuous improvement of our facilities through careful planning and budgeting.

We have saved up for our next initiative to make our service delivery more consistent and sustainable. Watch this space!
